

Dear All,

On Tuesday 26th I chose not to go to Flamingo land. I stayed at Welburn Hall and had an opportunity to do baking for Macmillan Coffee morning.

---

It was a good time for yesterday because it was so relaxing and it didn't feel like a lesson. I enjoyed making cake balls because they looked good. And I also enjoyed making veg Chilli.

We made £107.35 which was a good amount of money.

I am a little proud of my self.

Macmillan, the world's biggest coffee morning coffee morning.

A fantastic effort by Sam, James, Simon and Eleanor. Sam helped make all the delicious cakes and Simon, James and Eleanor offered service with a smile. Between them they managed to raise
