Welburn Hall School

Congratulations to our LKS4 teacher Ellie Marr who has passed her teaching induction training. Ellie was presented with her certificate in assembly.

Well done Ellie!

Welburn Hall school was very honoured to play host to Archbishop Sentamu and Rural Dean Revd. Tim Robinson on Friday. The children sang some lovely songs, acted out a scene from David & Goliath and asked lots of questions. The Archbishop Sentamu was presented with a photograph of the lake and a copy of the school prayer.

LKS4 children are getting very excited The Guinea Pigs arrive next week!
 Look out for the 'Meet the Guinea Pigs' in next week's newsletter!

This week goes to Tommy, Perse and Holli

The Bungoma Calling Charity has help us make a link with the Moonlight Schools in Kenya. Our Head girl and two other students sent out some letters and photographs of Welburn Hall school to Kenya in November last year.

We have just had a lovely letter back from the director of Moonlight School the Venerable Canon Enoch Nandokha, thanking us for the communication.

The Moonlight school has sent some letters from their students, so we can send letters to actual children. In school to support the link between the schools, our students are learning about going to school in different continents.
