Welburn Hall School

All the staff at Welburn Hall School would like to wish you all a very Happy New Year and wish you Health and Happiness in the coming year!

As winter has arrived and all the bugs arrive in force, can we just remind you all in the case of any illness involving diarrhoea and/or vomiting, we must be particularly careful. It is essential that all pupils and staff remain out of school for 48 hours after their symptoms have fully abated. Unfortunately, on this issue, we are unable to be flexible. We follow the guidance provided by the Health Protection Agency, which stipulates the period a child should be absent from school for a number of contagious illnesses. We will always pass this advice to you.

As we have just started in to a new term, can I just remind all parents and carers to keep a weekly check on your child's hair for Head Lice - if you need any help in identifying or treating Head Lice then please visit <http://www.onceaweektakeapeek.com/> If your child boards, we will be happy to help check with your consent. Just drop a note to the school office.

In December, main school went to see a fantastic Christmas production of Pinocchio at the Stephen Joseph Theatre in the Round, Scarborough. The traditional but unique version of the Italian tale of a cheeky little wooden puppet, who just wants to be a real boy was performed by just 4 musically gifted and talented performers who played all the different characters in the story including the baddy! (boo). The show was complete with some fantastic costumes, stage effects, songs and jokes and lots of audience participation.

The pupils were able to see the professional acting skill first hand picking up some tips about how to perform to an audience in preparation of our own Christmas production of 'Strictly the Nativity'

This year our own Christmas production had a modern twist on the traditional nativity story. The show contained all the traditional characters you would expect to see but boasted a marvellous variety of songs and a dazzling dance show featuring the Nazareth Line dancers, the Funky Camels and the Shepherds and their 'Shepherds Hey' to name but a few. The show was hosted by Eleanor and Jamie who both did a sterling job. The judges - Donkey, Caesar and the Inn Keeper's Wife certainly kept us entertained.

A huge thank you not only the pupils for a fantastic job but also to everyone who made the show possible. There is a huge amount of work goes in from everyone to put on a production so THANK YOU and WELL DONE!
