Two pupils from Riding for the Disabled Welburn Hall School Group had success on the weekend of 3rd and 4th June when competing at the R.D.A. Dressage and Countryside Regional Finals for North East and South Yorkshire at the Pennine Community Centre at Wakefield.

Bethany Fuguill came joint 1st in the Dressage and 1st in the Countryside Challenge.

Sebastian Page came joint 1st in the Dressage and 2nd in the Countryside Challenge.

They have both qualified for the R.D.A. National Championships which are held in July at Hartpury in Gloucestershire.

Voting has taken place today for next year's Head boy and girl, election results will be on here next week.

Here are a couple of action shots from Thursdays Super Stars.
