LKS3 Victorian Holiday to Scarborough seaside

As part of our learning about what holidays were like in Victorian times, LKS3 enjoyed an authentic, albeit a bit wet, to the beach. In conjunction with our shared story in class 'Matilda Jane beside the seaside' we experienced all the things that Matilda and her family enjoyed all those years ago. We started off with the train journey on the North Bay Railway followed by a superb performance from the Spa band in the Spa building. We were all transfixed! It was fantastic. After lunch we had a walk on the promenade and an ice cream followed by some time on the beach before catching the tram cliff lift to meet our mini bus. The trip was a fantastic success with a great team effort from all the staff so our young people could experience first-hand how seaside holidays have not really changed over time and to help consolidate their learning.
