Sponsored 100K Cycle Ride

David Middleton, one of our parents, is partaking in the Maserati Tour de Yorkshire 100k Cycle Ride on Sunday 30th April 2017. He is raising funds through sponsorship to support projects at Welburn Hall School.

The Home School Association is currently raising funds towards refurbishment of the hydrotherapy pool and the residential areas. We are also hoping to contribute funds towards a replacement mini bus.

Please help us by making a donation on our dedicated page with BT My Donate.

Sponsor forms will also be sent out soon if you would prefer to donate this way

Our Yorkshire Dialect Fundraising Evening on 17th February was a huge success. We had a fantastic turnout with over 80 guests. Thanks to Hunters of Helmsley, Kirkbymoorside Co-op, staff, parents and families for supporting the raffle and to Helen's mum for the homemade biscuits.

We raised an amazing £700 which will help fund the Rock Challenge event and some resources needed for the up and coming tuck shop.

Special thanks to Jane Windress and Helen Ward Jackson for all their hard work organising the event.

Adam Collier was wonderful, the audience were laughing and fully entertained from the moment he began. He is a very generous person who didn't charge Welburn Hall for his services. I think we can say a wonderful night was had by all!

This week goes to Millie, Eleanor & Isla

Following an assembly, focused this year on British traditions linked to Pancake day or Shrove Tuesday, all pupils participated in our yearly pancake races and Scarborough skipping.

Congratulations to our Pancake Race winners!
