

Welburn Hall Weekly

Friday 5th March 2021

Welburn Hall School

Happy Friday everybody. We hope you have managed to make the most of the nicer weather and the last week before full time schooling resumes. In last week's edition we posted a competition for The Great British Junior Bake Off. Some of our children were inspired by this and tried really hard in their cooking classes to make mini quiches and savoury scones.

Our teachers and pupils decided that it would be a great idea to merge World Book Day with the Bake Off and created story themed cakes which were absolutely fantastic!

These were judged and the winners of the World Book Day cake competitions were as follows -

The cake you would most like to take home- Roald Dahl "George's Marvellous Medicine" by Miss Marr's class

Most creative design- Roald Dahl "James and the Giant Peach" by Mr Scott's class

Best tasting- Roald Dahl "The Twits" by Mrs Clapton class

WORLD BOOK DAY 4TH MARCH 2021

As usual our team took on the challenge of dressing up and they certainly did not disappoint! The children of UKS4/5 listened to Rob Biddulph's "The Odd Dog" then based on that story they attempted to create their own bookmarks. They made decorative buns and biscuits then several classes participated in a world book treasure hunt activity. A wonderful day was had by all. We had far too many photos to choose from so here are just a few...

Walk for Autism is back for 2021 and we would love it if you joined us! 10,000 steps per day from 26 March to 2 April. In these most extraordinary times, have you got what it takes?

<https://www.walkforautism.co.uk/>

We sent out an email yesterday asking that you inform us of your child's eating preferences as since the start of the September term some children have been having packed lunches due us not have the provisions to make hot school meals. As of next week, both a vegetarian and a meat option will be available daily. This will be the week 2 menu.

Taxi companies will return to their usual operating procedures as children are expected to attend school unless they have exceptional circumstances which have been authorised and approved.

Lockdown has been extremely tough for adults to deal with as we perhaps aren't as resilient to change as children are. If you feel that you have been affected and that you or your child need somebody to talk to or additional support there are lots of classes, articles, zoom calls and contact numbers available. please let us know if you require further information.

Thank you and enjoy your weekend 😊