

Welburn Hall Weekly

Wednesday 30th March 2022

Just over a week remaining until the April half term holidays are upon us. Can you believe how quickly that has gone?? It wasn't that long since the cupboards were cleared of Christmas debris and now it is almost time to fill them full of chocolate again!

COMPETITION TIME:

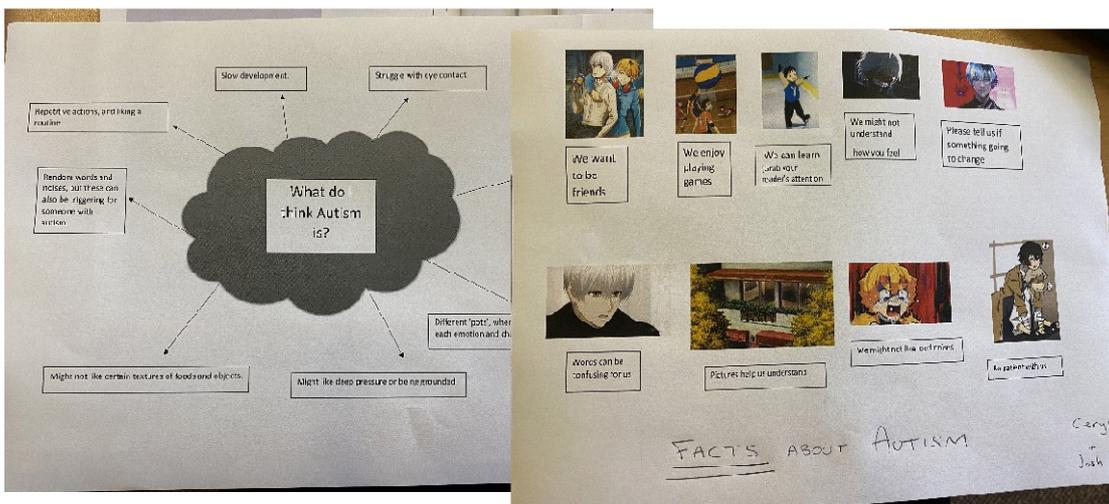

Create your very own poem about Easter and what you like the most about it and you could have the chance of winning an Easter treat! Long or short, it does not matter, it is the participating that counts 😊

ENTRIES TO BE IN BY TUESDAY 5TH APRIL.

GOOD LUCK!

We would just like to thank you all for your patience, kindness and understanding during the last couple of weeks as we have struggled with sickness and attendance issues. For this reason, unfortunately, we do not have too much to share this week but here is what we do have...

Miss Marr's class gave their personal take on Autism as a part of Autism acceptance week. They created a brainstorm chart based on what their perception of Autism is and used computers and books to do some fact-finding research.

Lower semi-formal class have been making stained glass effect Easter Eggs. They look great on the window when the sun shines against them 👍

Back in January Upper Informal planted some tulip bulbs. We have been looking after them and we have been waiting patiently and they have finally started to flower.

Welburn Hall Home School Association are running a tombola at NY500 on the day of the Squires Egg Run. Funds raised will be divided between Welburn Hall Home School Association and Yorkshire Air Ambulance. The egg run is very well known. It is hoped that over 1000 motorbikes will take part in the event. Children from school attending the event will be able to receive an Easter Egg. There will be a live band, food, drink, various stalls and lots of vehicles to look at. We hope to see you there for a fun packed afternoon

This week we were so very kindly donated a beautiful and rather ginormous Easter Egg by the Ryedale Lions so we have created a guess the name poster at £1 per go and the winner gets the egg! This will be located in the main school reception. All proceeds made will go towards Ellie Marr's class for a school trip later this year. The name will be announced on the last day of term so there is plenty of time for you all to participate.

Also, on the last day of term, Ellie and her Upper Formal KS5 class will be doing an Easter Egg raffle to raise funds for their trip so if anybody is able to donate any eggs that would be really appreciated.

Thank you.

'Tid bits' of info...

Next week the school lunch menu is week 1.

Polite reminder to parents - Please ensure that your contact details and home address records are updated accordingly. This can be done via phone 01723 431 218 or via the admin@welburn-hall.n-yorks.sch.uk email address.

We recently issued an email with the changes to term and holiday dates for this year. If you did not receive it then please let us know.

Today we say goodbye to Sue Swalwell who is retiring after dedicating a fantastic 15 years of service to the school. We would like to thank Sue for her constant dedication, love and care she's brought to all the teams and children she has worked with. Thanks to Sarah O, Fran and Rev Sue, for their really touching 'singing and signing' at assembly yesterday, which allowed all the pupils to be involved too!

Happy Retirement Sue, we will all miss you!
