Upper Formal 4

We mentioned our two riders in last week's newsletter and this week they wanted to share their photographs

Sarah riding Troy

Scarlet riding Archie

The college students were unable to provide staff lunches this week so Mr Scott's class took the opportunity and did their work experience in the kitchen. They made jacket potatoes with various filling for 14 staff. They all worked incredibly hard and were tired by lunchtime. Sarah said, 'I haven't even had time to eat my snack!'

In Nurture 2, Katelyn has been learning about reproduction and pollination of flowers. She visited Westfield Farm in Fadmoor, which is famous for honey. Katelyn met with Chris, the owner, and learnt all about his bees before helping him with the next batch of honey production. You may recognise him from the Hairy Bikers Up North TV series. The rest of the class are really enjoying their new topic about Crime and Punishment. We hadn't realised how harsh some of the punishments used to be!
