Anyone for tennis...?

UF4 relished the chance to do tennis coaching with Jake.

They practiced bouncing a ball on the racket and catching it in a cone. It was tricky, but everyone persevered really well.

Of particular enjoyment was the giant balloon game over the tennis net. Much fun was had by all.

Lower Formal also enjoyed their own special tennis coaching session.

Everyone enthusiastically joined in to hone their tennis skills.

Our thanks go out to Jake for a very exhilarating and sporty afternoon.

Thursdays represent a special treat for the staff at Welburn Hall School whereby for a small fee they can have a very tasty lunch ready prepared for them.

This is last week's menu, which as you can see, was an expertly presented Buddha Bowl, freshly made by some of our college students.

This week's tasty treat was Sloppy Joes – delicious!

PIC•COLLAGE

As part of their life skills lesson Mrs Foy's college students tried different Spanish meats to create their own Spanish style tapas.

All the students participated and were pleasantly surprised by liking things that they didn't expect to enjoy.

In food tech this week Pre-Formal had the pleasure of making delicious hot dogs.

They enjoyed experimenting with different sauces, to accompany their sausages, by mixing traditional ketchups with mayonnaise.

Garlic mayonnaise was a surprising hit, obviously tomato ketchup is still a favourite and even sweet chilli sauce got the thumbs up 👍
