Mandy Warner& Cath McGill - moving It is important that responsibilities are clearly set out - this will make sure that if there are any health and safety and handling concerns they can be reported to the right person, so they can be dealt with. You may wish to insert a diagram or chart showing your management structure/arrangements.

Specific responsibilities for head teachers, managers, heads of departments and staff can be found in the NYCC Corporate Health & Safety Policy which can be found in:

Main Office - CYPS health and safety policy and guidance handbook

Employees have legal responsibilities to take care of the health and safety of themselves and others, and to cooperate with management to help comply with the law.

Equally, if employees have any concerns over health and safety issues, they should be clear about whom they should tell, so that concerns can be addressed.

All employees have to:

- co-operate with supervisors and managers on health and safetymatters;
- followprocedures;
- not interfere with anything provided to safeguard their health and safety;
- take reasonable care of their own health and safety and of others; and
- report all health and safety concerns to an appropriate person (as detailed inthis policystatement).

INFORMATION, INSTRUCTION AND SUPERVISION

The Health and Safety Law poster is displayed at:

Staff Rooms - school and house

Duty Room

Main Kitchen

Site Mangers Office

NOTE

The Health and Safety Information for Employees Regulations 1989 require employers to display a poster (or to provide leaflets) telling employees what they need to know about health and safety.

Health and safety advice is available from your Hands Safety Risk Adviser:

Wayne Thickett Safety Risk Adviser 01609 532545 07973 802034

Supervision of young workers and trainees will be arranged/ undertaken/monitored by:

The Placement Co-ordinator

You are required to have access to competent advice, either in house or, if not available, external.

If you have young workers and/or take on trainees or students on work experience, you will need to ensure that they are properly instructed and supervised.

You must also do specific risk assessments for young people - you need to take account of their inexperience, lack of awareness of risks and immaturity.

Ensuring that our employees working at locations under the control of other employers, aregiven relevant health and safety information is the responsibilityof: If your employees go to work for another employer on your behalf e.g. on secondment you will need to check that they are given relevant health and safety information for that location by that employer/company.

Headteacher

COMPETENCY FOR TASKS ANDTRAINING

NOTE

Induction training will be provided for all employees by:

Site Manager, Head Teacher and line manager

All employees must be given health and safety induction training when they start work. This can be combined with other useful information (e.g. pay, leave and hours of work). It needs to cover basic health and safety such as first aid and fire safety.

ill be provided Employees will need job-specific training, which includes the health and safety aspects of thejob.

You also have to provide health and safety training for people when risks change, or periodically, e.g. if skills donot get used regularly.

Some jobs will require additional special training (e.g. manual handling, driving etc.)

You may wish to refer to your school development plan. It is important to keep records of training (even training you have provided in-house) to show that employees have received training.

You should monitor the training records, so that refresher training is given when necessary

NYCCCYPShasacommitmenttoprovidehealth and safety training to Headteachers, Governors and Lead Officers etc. For further details of the courses available pleasecontact:

• NYCC LEARNINGZONE

All accidents and cases of workrelated ill health are to be recorded on relevant forms: Blank forms are in cupboard in Games room Electronic forms can be found on SharePoint. Completed forms are in folders in Main Office

NOTE

Employees must receive health surveillance for certain work (e.g. work with lead, chrome, asbestos, noise, isocyanates and some chemicals). This will identify any health problems early on so that action can be taken before an employee's condition worsens.

 Refer to NYCC Occupational Health -01609785780

Your COSHH assessments should identify all areas and the type of health surveillance needed.

Your records should contain details of the employees, the health surveillance procedures, dates and conclusions. The health care professional doing the surveillance will hold the actual medical records, as these are confidential.

Providing immediate first aid can prevent minor injuries becoming major ones.

As a minimum you must have a first aid box and an appointed person to take charge of first aid requirements. You can find more information in HSE's free leaflets:

- First aid at work your questions answered INDG2141997
- Basic advice on first aid at workINDG215 (rev)1997.

Recording accidents (even minor ones) means you can see whether you have a problem in a particular area

You must report accidents to:

CYPS Health and Safety 01609 532589.

Follow the procedures outlined in the CYPS Health and Safety Policy and GuidanceManual.

The person responsible for reporting accidents, diseases and dangerous occurrences to the NYCC Education Health and Safety section is:

Site Manager
